Labelled & Certified Training under the Hermes-OSR solution

FLA as Training Institute

FLA as leading member of the accreditation committee involving OSR experts and other representative bodies or organisations, and managed by the Secretariat

Enterprises, Employees, Practitioners, Consultants...

The Hermes-OSR Label brings you a guaranty on the content and delivery quality of the training on Social Responsibility of the accredited courses.

Certification

Certificates are delivered to the trainees passing with success the tests during the training sessions.

Training modules are divided in units defined in terms of Knowledge, Skills and Competences using the European Qualification Framework to ensure future recognition via the ECVET system (European Credit System in Vocational Education and Training) as well.

This certificate is currently validated by an Accreditation Committee composed of professional and socio-economic stakeholders, and it is lead by the FLA.

This certification approach is supported by the world known NGO, the FLA – The Fair Labor Association, which has been able to impose the idea that to be consistent in OSR/CSR, an Enterprise should implement Social Responsibility using clear rules and well defined process and procedures.
